

Lutheran Church of the Resurrection

525 Minutemen Causeway

Cocoa Beach, FL 32931

office@goresurrection.com

Organist/Pianist and Choirs Director (Vocal, Handbell) Traditional Worship

Job Summary:

To lead the worship music ministry for our Sunday morning traditional church service and special events, in consultation with the Pastor and Worship Committee, in a way that is consistent with our mission, values, and theology. This is a part-time position.

Responsibilities:

Select and plan music for the traditional 8:30 Sunday morning service in coordination with the pastor.

Serve as organist/pianist/director for the traditional service.

Provide music for outdoor services as requested.

Select, plan and teach music to vocal choir and handbell choir.

Provide regular updates to the Worship Committee on the traditional music program.

Attend monthly Worship-Music Committee meetings.

Provide input for traditional music page on church website.

Manage music budget and maintain musical equipment as needed.

Schedule and hold rehearsals for choirs and special music.

Organize and oversee special services held on days other than Sunday (Good Friday, Christmas Eve, etc.) and other occasional gatherings.

Play patriotic songs between services at yearly Independence Day Celebration. Play Christmas carols at annual Church Christmas party.

Help with funerals and weddings (reimbursed separately), as available.

Organize and oversee annual handbell conference trip (reference budget for funds to cover cost).

Line up supply organists when needed.

Compensation:

An annual salary commensurate with education and experience.

End of the year, merit-based bonuses have traditionally been given to church employees each year.

Guaranteed fees for weddings and funerals to be paid by the families served.

Instruments:

Rodgers organ (Model 838 two manuals), Schimmel upright, Malmark handbells

To Apply:

Please send a resume', cover letter and 3 ministerial references to office@goresurrection.com